ORDER

On May 6, 2010, United States Magistrate Judge Thomas E. Rogers, III, filed an Order granting the defendant's motion to transfer venue to the Central District of California. (Doc. # 32). The plaintiff filed objections to the Magistrate Judge's Order on May 20, 2010. (Doc. #36). The defense filed a reply on May 28, 2010. (Doc. # 37).

In reviewing objections to a nondispositive order of a Magistrate Judge, this Court applies Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72(a). Under Rule 72(a), this Court will "modify or set aside any part of the order that is clearly erroneous or contrary to law."

The Court has carefully reviewed the Magistrate Judge's Order as well as the plaintiff's objections. The Court finds the Order of the Magistrate Judge to be well-reasoned. After a full review of the relevant caselaw cited and the relevant factors set forth in that caselaw, the Court finds that the Order of the Magistrate Judge is neither erroneous nor contrary to law.

For these reasons, the Order of the Magistrate Judge is hereby AFFIRMED and the plaintiff's objections to the Magistrate Judge's Order are hereby OVERRULED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
